Textbook: None

Attendance: Daily attendance is expected but is not graded. You will be responsible for material covered in class.

Homework: You should be practicing mathematics daily. Late homework will rarely be accepted.

Exams: If you must miss an exam or quiz, you must notify me before the scheduled exam/quiz.

Z-Grade: The Z grade is an instructor initiated option to withdraw a student from a class after the official withdraw date has passed. A Z grade will not be given for non-attendance or to anyone who has not completed all of the course work.

Cheating: A grade of 0.0 will be given for anyone caught cheating, attempting to cheat or helping a classmate cheat.

Calculator: A TI graphing calculator is recommended. You will need a minimum of a scientific calculator.

Grading:

Exams	60%
Homework	40%

To calculate the decimal grade, take your percentage, subtract 53 then divide by 10.

Diversity and Disability Statement: Our institution values diversity and inclusion; we are committed to a climate of mutual respect and full participation. Our goal is to create learning environments that are usable, equitable, inclusive and welcoming. If there are aspects of the instruction or design of this course that result in barriers to your inclusion or accurate assessment or achievement, please notify the instructor as soon as possible. Students with disabilities are also welcome to contact the disability service office to discuss a range of options to removing barriers in the course, including accommodations.
