FEATURING THE WORK OF . . .

Tom Gribble

Tom was awarded an Artist Trust/Washington State Arts Commission's Fellowship for Literature, the Associated Writing Programs Intro to Journals Award for poetry, and other honors. His work has appeared in dozens of journals, such as Chattahoochee Review, Puerto Del Sol, and Hawaii Review. Tom teaches at Spokane Community College.

Erin Pringle

Erin is originally from Illinois, and has her M.F.A. in Creative Writing from Texas State University. Her fiction has been nominated for a Pushcart Prize, shortlisted for the Charles Pick Fellowship, and published in several magazines. She also has a short-story collection, The Floating Order (Two Ravens Press, 2009). Erin teaches at SFCC.

Tod Marshall

Tod was born in Buffalo, NY. His first collection of poetry, Dare Say, was the 2002 winner of the University of Georgia's Contemporary Poetry Series. His second collection, The Tangled Line, was published by Canarium Books in April 2009. He has also published a collection of his interviews with contemporary poets, Range of the Possible (EWU Press, 2002), and edited an accompanying anthology of poems, Range of Voices (EWU Press 2005). He lives in Spokane, Washington, and teaches at Gonzaga University.
